Westside celebra la 20^a búsqueda de huevos de Pascua de primavera

Westside celebrates the 20^a spring frolic-Easter egg Hunt!

On April 12, the Westside community celebrated the 20th Westside spring frolic-Easter egg Hunt neighborhood activity.

More than 130 participants came to the Irene Ruiz Library-Biblioteca de las Américas, where volunteers and partner organizations put together activities that celebrated the spring season and the Easter eggs hunt activity.

"We express deepest gratitude to all the children and families that came to celebrate and enjoy this wonderful day! Special thanks to Easter Bunny, Irene Library Manager Amy and her staff, KCPD-WCAN Officers Villalobos and Hall, JCCC-LUNA volunteers, WCAN and Day Labor Worker volunteers that made this 20th Spring Frolic-Easter Eggs Hunt," said Jorge Coromac, director of the Centro Westside CAN.

During the event the children and families participated in different activities that included:
